

Further light

Light. The light of the sun drives away the night. The light of truth and knowledge drives away ignorance, prejudice, tyranny, and hate. Truly, this is the light of hope for the human race.

There are men of all races and walks of life who have joined together in the search for further light. There are men who are dedicated to spreading the light of knowledge, tolerance, liberty and brotherly love.

Who are these men? They are 32° Freemasons.
